b. Life Member Those who have been members of the League for 50 years or more are voting members excused from the payment of dues.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

Sec. 1. Enumeration and Election of Officers The officers of the LWVWY are the President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. The President and Secretary are elected by the Convention delegates in odd-numbered years, and the Vice President and Treasurer are elected by the Convention delegates in even-numbered years. Each holds office for two years or until a successor has been elected and qualified.

Sec.2. President The President or designee presides at all meetings of the Corporation and the Board unless the President designates someone to preside. The President may, in the absence or disability of the Treasurer, sign or endorse checks, drafts, and notes. The President is an ex officio member of all committees. The President has such usual powers of supervision and management as may pertain to the office of the President and performs such other duties as may be designated by the Board.

- Sec. 3. Vice President The Vice President, in the event of the absence of the President, possesses all the powers and performs all the duties of that office. In the event of the resignation, disability, or death of the President, the Vice President assumes all of the duties of that office until the term expires. - Sec. 5. Treasurer The Treasurer collects and receives all monies due except funds requiring special accounting. (See Article VII, Sec. 4.) The Treasurer is the custodian of these monies, deposits them in a bank or banks designated by the Board, and disburses the same as required. The Treasurer presents periodic statements to the Board at regular meetings and an annual report to the Convention. The Treasurer may be designated to sign contracts by the President or the Board. The Treasurer performs other functions that may be incidental to the office.
- Sec. 6. Removal from Office Any officer may be removed from office for dereliction of duty by a majority vote of those present and voting at a regular or called meeting of the Board. The Executive Committee appoints a replacement who serves the remaining portion of that term of office.

ARTICLE V

The Board

- Sec. 1. Number, Manner of Selection, and Term of Office The Board consists of the elected officers (See Article IV), up to four Elected Directors, up to four Appointed Directors, and Local League Presidents or their representatives. One-half of the elected directors are elected by the delegates at each convention and serve for a term of two years. The board selects the Appointed Directors at the first board meeting after the Convention or subsequent meetings. Appointed Directors serve until the next Convention.
- Sec. 2. Qualifications Members of the Board must be members of the LWVWY.
- Sec. 3. Vacancies Except for the provision for Removal from Office, any vacancy, other than in the office of the President, may be filled for the duration of the term by a majority vote of the remaining members of the Board. - Sec. 4. Powers and Duties The Board has full charge of the property and business of the Corporation, with full power and authority to manage and conduct the same, subject to the instructions of the Convention. The Board accepts responsibility delegated to it by the Board of Directors of the LWVUS for the organization and development of Local Leagues, for the carrying out of the Program positions, and for the promotion of the League as a whole, including the transmission of funds toward the support of an adequate state and national budget. The Board creates and designates such special committees as it may deem necessary.
- Sec. 5. Regular Meetings There are at least four regular meetings of the Board annually. The President notifies each member of the Board of all regular meetings at least one week before meetings, providing the time and the place of the meeting, including electronic meetings. Votes may be taken by teleconference, telephone, or any other appropriate method, excluding proxy. The voting procedure is specified at all meetings and is uniform at a given meeting. If an anonymous vote is taken, a vote conducted through a designated electronic meeting service is valid.

Sec. 6. Special Meetings The President may call special meetings of the Board and will call a special meeting upon the written request of three members of the Board. Members of the Board are notified of the time of the electronic meeting or time and location of special meetings at least three days before such meetings. During the Convention, the President may of their own accord, or upon the request of three members of the Board, call a special meeting of the Board.

Sec. 7. Quorum A majority of the members of the Board present and voting constitutes a quorum.

Sec. 8. Executive Committee The Executive Committee comprises the Officers and one Elected Director, designated by the Board, whose Executive Committee appointment lasts for the duration of the term as Director. The Executive Committee acts for the Board between regularly scheduled meetings as needed to make timely decisions. The President reports to the Board on Executive Committee actions at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting. Such actions are recorded in the meeting minutes.

Sec. 9. Removal from Office In executing the duties of their office, Board members are expected to carry out applicable laws and regulations as well as League Bylaws, mission, policies, principles, positions, standards, and procedures. Board members who do not follow these expectations are notified by the President. For persistent violations, any member of the Board may be removed from office for dereliction of duty by a majority vote of those present and voting at a regular or called meeting of the Board.

The President sends the First Call to Convention. In the Call, the President solicits Program recommendations from the Local Leagues, Provisional Leagues, and Units-at-Large not less than two months prior to the opening date of the Convention. Thereafter, the Board may advance or postpone the opening date of the Convention not more than two weeks from the date fixed in the First Call, except in the case of a civil or League emergency, in which case the Board may alter the time, place, mode of meeting, communication, and interchange, or other Convention arrangements, as long as most members can accommodate the changes, up to a month in advance. A Final Call for Convention is sent by the President to Local Leagues, Provisional Leagues, and Units-at-Large at least two weeks before the Convention.

- Sec. 3. Qualifications of Delegates and Voting Each delegate must be a member of the LWVWY and is entitled to one vote, even though the delegate may attend in two or more capacities. Sec.4. Representation The members of the LWVWY who are organized into recognized Local Leagues, Provisional Leagues, and Units-at-Large in Wyoming are entitled to one delegate for the first 10 members and one delegate for every five additional members or major fraction thereof on January 31 of the Convention year. The record of paid members determines the official membership count for this purpose.

Sec. 5. Authorization for Action In odd-numbered years, the Convention considers and authorizes for action the State Program; elects a President, Secretary, and two Directors; adopts a budget for the ensuing fiscal year; and transacts such other business as may be presented. In even-numbered years, the Convention elects a Vice President, Treasurer, and two Directors; adopts a budget for the ensuing fiscal year; considers Program and implementation; and transacts any other business as may be presented.

Any recommendation for the Program submitted to the Board one month before the Convention, but not proposed by the Board, may be adopted by the Convention provided consideration is ordered by a majority vote at the first Plenary session and the proposal for adoption receives a two-thirds vote at the second Plenary session.

Sec. 4 Member Action Members may act in the name of the LWVWY only when authorized to do so by the Board.

Sec. 5. Local League Action Local Leagues may take action on state governmental matters only when authorized to do so by the Board. Local Leagues may act only in conformity with, and not contrary to, a position taken by the LWVWY and the LWVUS.
